THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER—FREEDOM OF PRESS RESTORED IN KENTUCKY.—Major General Palmer, the military commander of the Department of Kentucky, has very wisely vetoed the interference from the circulation of that sterling paper, the Cincinnati Enquirer, to the people of this State. We congratulate the people of this State that they are no longer compelled to read the vile and incendiary papers which ruthlessly blind despotism in a long period has based upon them. The refusal to permit the paper to circulate in Kentucky was a stain upon the Administration at Washington, a great violation of the freedom of the press.

monstrous wrong to thousands of good, and loyal men of Kentucky. It will be a just and deserving tribute to the courage and patriotism with which the editors of the Enquirer have borne themselves under the governmental persecution of pressing their paper for so long a period. Every friend of republican liberty in Kentucky would exert himself, and give them a circulation in the State as no other paper ever had before. That the political principles of many have been vitiated and corrupted by doctrines subversive of the rights and liberties of the people, and destructive of the principles of government itself, been perpetually and boldly encouraged by the papers were permitted to circulate in State, during the suppression of Enquirer, no good man can for a mo-doubt. The evil which has been done not be entirely eradicated, but much may be accomplished to restore a sound and healthful of public sentiment by a free and circulation of the Enquirer. Let therefore, every man who has been outraged the compulsion with which he was under the Abolition papers with which the has been flooded, or not to read any some time to the duty of procuring subscribers to the Enquirer, and to secure to it a circulation as its sound and patriotic things deserve and its late persecutions de-

The Enquirer is the only paper published in a journal which has, during the present war, firmly and consistently opposed the measures of the party in power, the innovations of the Constitution by Congress and the Executive, and the substitution of force and violence for law and order, as encouraged by the course of the papers in the interest of the British party. It has never indulged in wholesale abuse of the people of this country, endeavored to promote peace in our midst, or made war upon our institutions, as other papers have done. It was forced upon us by the authorities who suppressed the Enquirer, and hence has had no political bias.

ADJUDGERS DEPARTMENT OF KENTUCKY, }
LOUISVILLE, March 8, 1895.
Respectfully returned to Colonel McIntire, the information that, as "martial law," in Kentucky, it does not follow that a guilty of an offense of which the civil have cognizance will be discharged military arrest upon that ground only. jurisdiction results from necessity, often grows out of the necessity for mili-interference to maintain public order. In to the case mentioned in there, if the party is in military custody for larceny only, and the officers charged by the administration of criminal justice in the proper county, shall be of opinion they are able to administer the law in such similar cases, the prisoner will, upon application by them, be turned over for trial. Early, the application should be made by the governor, but the certificate of the proper officers, in support of a writ of habeas corpus (or the writ for this purpose) will be sufficient. The presentation of this certificate, as will be made upon the officer having the prisoner in custody: "If the accused is in custody, deliver him to the officer punishable."

to be held for trial." upper de-thus full in the statement of my views this case may serve as a precedent.

JOHN M. PALMER,
 Major General Commanding.

News from Goldsboro, April 31, repre-the work of re-organization is going on rapidly as the limited transportation of railroad can forward supplies. Provisions scarce, and destitute families are thrown the Government for support. Negroes farming into the lines and are being sent where.

ARMED WITH GUERRILLAS.—The Campbell county (Kentucky) Home Guards had a fight with a party of guerrillas on Ripple creek, about two miles south of Cold Springs.

The guerrillas who visited Owensboro last week were commanded by Capt. Babor, the Evansville Journal, and not Bennett, as was informed. One driver of a captured wagon was killed by the guerrillas.

Jacks Bennett, the guerrilla chief, with twenty-five men, is reported in the neighborhood of Union county, Kentucky, where, on Saturday, they robbed two Union citizens.

General Weitzel, who is the General orted to have captured Richmond, is a innation by birth, and his corps is com-of colored troops.
